I've failed at things more times than you can imagine. I have failed at making things, I have failed at fixing things, and I even have failed at destroying things! Usually this is because I fail to educate myself or research what it is that I'm doing, but (and let's be brutally honest) that is usually because I am often lazy! Yet other times, it's because a skill just needs to be practiced. After all, you can't expect to sit down at the piano when you've never played before and immediately play a musical piece. It takes time to learn how to do something new, something you've never done before.

We must not lose hope; we must realize that defeat is not permanent, and success is not an accident (see Quotes and Quips, page 2). It's really only our attitude and ability to persevere that will allow us to achieve success or, alternatively, will determine our defeat. If we decide to be successful, it IS within our grasp! Never, never give up.

HEAVEN WELCOMES HOME ITS KING

“Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of glory shall come in” (Psalm 24:7).

All heaven was waiting for the hour of triumph when Jesus should ascend to His Father. Angels came to receive the King of glory and to escort Him triumphantly to heaven. After Jesus had blessed His disciples, He was parted from them and taken up. And as He led the way upward, the multitude of captives who were raised at His resurrection followed. A multitude of the heavenly host were in attendance, while in heaven an innumerable company of angels awaited His coming. As they ascended to the Holy City, the angels who escorted Jesus cried out, “Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.” The angels in the city cried out with rapture, “Who is this King of glory?” The escorting angels answered in triumph, “The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle! Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in!” Again the waiting angels asked, “Who is this King of glory?” and the escorting angels answered in melodious strains, “The Lord of hosts, He is the King of glory.” And the heavenly train passed into the city of God.

As Moses was about to die upon Mount Nebo, God granted him a vision. From the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem to His death upon the cross, the life of Christ passed before the great Hebrew leader. Witnessing future events, he saw the triumph of Christ. He beheld Him coming forth a conqueror, and ascending to heaven escorted by adoring angels and leading a multitude of captives. He saw the shining gates open to receive Him, and the host of heaven with songs of triumph welcoming their Commander. And it was there revealed to him that he himself would be one who should attend the Savior, and open to Him the everlasting gates. As he looked upon the scene, his countenance shone with a holy radiance. How small appeared the trials and sacrifices of his life when compared with those of the Son of God! How light in contrast with the “far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory”! (II Corinthians 4:17).

Jesus wishes to welcome us to those same celestial courts. Then “He shall see the labor of His soul, and be satisfied” (Isaiah 53:11). What a homecoming awaits us! ■

LIGHT FOR MY PATH

What to Do When You Are in Need of Patience

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Hebrews 6:12a

For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise.

For yet a little while, and He that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

Hebrews 10:36-37

Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us.

Hebrews 12:1

Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

Ecclesiastes 7:8

Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus.

Romans 15:5

I waited patiently for the Lord; and He inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

Psalms 40:1

And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

And patience, experience; and experience, hope.

Romans 5:3, 4.

REVELATION
SPEAKS

By Mark A. Finley

THE AUTHOR OF THE BOOK

[This chapter is based on Revelation, Chapters 1 and 4]

People everywhere have an inner longing for something they can worship. Augustine says that man was created with a vacuum that can be filled only by the presence of God! Perhaps most of us are not even aware of this longing! Psychologists tell us that people try to satisfy this inner longing by excessive eating, drinking, smoking, immorality, and materialism. But these things only bring temporary enjoyment.

The fragile bubbles people are chasing will burst, leaving a deeper void. What we really need to fill this inner void is a meaningful relationship with God — the God who has graphically revealed Himself in the Book of Revelation. We all need to feel the satisfaction of knowing there is someone more powerful than ourselves who is able and willing to help us solve all of our problems. We all need to know there is someone who unselfishly loves and cares for us!

In this lesson we will meet the Author of the book of Revelation — the God of the universe!

1. Who is the real Author of the book of Revelation? Revelation 1:1, first part.

---

NOTE: You will find in some versions of the Bible that the translators have titled the book of Revelation, "The Revelation of St. John the Divine." In this they have contradicted the very first verse of the book itself! It is not only the Revelation of Jesus Christ, but it is the Revelation that God gave to Jesus, and Christ sent and signified it by His angel and told John to write it. So, you see, the real Author of Revelation is God, the Father — the Source of all wisdom and truth.

2. Why did God give this Revelation to Jesus? Revelation 1:1.

3. How is God described in this book? Revelation 1:4, 8.

4. What members of the Godhead participated in the transmission of this message? Revelation 1:1, 4-6.

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____

NOTE: Here we find the phrase, “the seven spirits who are before His throne.” As we study further into the Book of Revelation, we will find numerous references to the number “seven.” The “sevens” denote fullness, completeness, or perfection.

5. What invitation was given to John, and what was John going to see? Revelation 4:1.

- b. _____

6. What did John see? Revelation 4:2, 3.

_____

7. Whom did John see surrounding the throne? Revelation 4:4.

_____
_____

8. Whom did the 24 elders say they were? Revelation 5:8-10.

_____
_____

NOTE: They themselves declare that they were redeemed by the blood of the Lamb out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation (Revelation 5:8-10). They are, therefore, sinners saved by grace.

9. What miraculous event occurred when Christ arose from the tomb? Matthew 27:50-53.

_____

NOTE: When Jesus arose from the grave, the Bible says that graves were opened and many who slept in the graves arose — and when Jesus ascended to heaven, He took a multitude of captives with Him (Ephesians 4:8).

10. What other beings did John see in God’s presence? Revelation 4:5-8.

_____

---

NOTE: The word beast is from the Greek word, “zoa,” which actually means “living creatures,” or “living beings.” The quartet of living creatures that sing praises day and night unto the “Lord God Almighty,” which was, and is, and is to come” have the honor of being close to God. Is it any wonder they sing and praise Him day and night! Isaiah called these creatures seraphim (Isaiah 6:2). Ezekiel calls them cherubim (Ezekiel 10:15-20).

11. What was the response of the 24 elders when the quartet sang their song of praise? Revelation 4:9, 10.

12. Why do they say that God is worthy to be worshiped? Revelation 4:11.

---

NOTE: We find no atheists or evolutionists among the beings surrounding the throne of God! He is worthy of our praise and adoration! He made us and with His unlimited love has redeemed us!

13. What question did David ask as he was considering this great universe God has created? Psalm 8:3, 4.

---

14. What character trait of God causes Him to be concerned about us? I John 4:8, 16.

THE STORY OF REDEMPTION
by E. G. White

THE PLAN OF SALVATION

The One Possible Way of Salvation

The angels prostrated themselves before [Christ]. They offered their lives. Jesus said to them that He would by His death save many, that the life of an angel could not pay the debt. His life alone could be accepted of His Father as a ransom for man. Jesus also told them that they would have a part to act, to be with Him and at different times strengthen Him; that He would take man's fallen nature, and His strength would not be even equal with theirs; that they would be witnesses of His humiliation and great sufferings; and that as they would witness His sufferings and the hatred of men toward Him, they would be stirred with the deepest emotion, and through their love for Him would wish to rescue and deliver Him from His murderers; but that they must not interfere to prevent anything they should behold; and that they should act a part at His resurrection; that the plan of salvation was devised, and His Father had accepted the plan.

With a holy sadness Jesus comforted and cheered the angels and informed them that hereafter those whom He should redeem would be with Him, and that by His death He should ransom many and destroy him who had the power of death. And His Father would give Him the kingdom and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, and He would possess it forever and ever. Satan and sinners would be destroyed, nevermore to disturb heaven or the purified new earth. Jesus bade the heavenly host be reconciled to the plan that His Father had accepted and rejoice that through His death fallen man could again be exalted to obtain favor with God and enjoy heaven.

Then joy, inexpressible joy, filled heaven. And the heavenly host sang a song of praise and adoration. They touched their harps and sang a note higher than they had done before, for the great mercy and condescension of God in yielding up His dearly Beloved to die for a race of rebels. Praise and adoration were poured forth for the self-denial and sacrifice of Jesus; that He would consent to leave the bosom of His Father and choose a life of suffering and anguish, and die an humiliating death to give life to others.

Think ye that the Father yielded up His dearly beloved Son without a struggle? No, no. It was even a struggle with the God of heaven, whether to let guilty man perish, or to give His beloved Son to die for him. Angels were so interested for man's salvation that there could be found among them those who would yield their glory and give their life for perishing man, but, that would avail nothing. The transgression was so great that an angel's life would not pay the debt. Nothing but the death and intercession of His Son would pay the debt and save lost man from hopeless sorrow and misery."

But the work of the angels was assigned them, to ascend and descend with strengthening balm from glory to soothe the Son of God in His sufferings and minister unto Him. Also, their work would be to guard and keep the subjects of grace from the evil angels and the darkness constantly thrown around them by Satan. It was impossible for God to alter or change His law to save lost, perishing man; therefore He suffered His beloved Son to die for man's transgression.

Satan again rejoiced with his angels that he could, by causing man's fall, pull down the Son of God from His exalted position. He told his angels that when Jesus should take fallen man's nature, he could overpower Him and hinder the accomplishment of the plan of salvation.

Satan once was a happy, exalted angel. He still bears a kingly form. His features are still noble, for he is an angel, fallen. But the expression of his countenance is full of anxiety, care, unhappiness, malice, hate, mischief, deceit, and every evil. That brow that was once so noble [was changed]. His forehead commenced from his eyes to recede. He had so long bent himself to evil that every good quality was debased, and every evil trait was developed. His eyes were cunning, sly, and showed great penetration. His frame was large, but the flesh hung loosely about his hands and face. As I beheld him, his chin was resting upon his left hand. He appeared to be in deep thought. A smile was upon his countenance; it was so full of evil and satanic slyness. This smile is the one he wears just before he makes sure of his victim, and as he fastens the victim in his snare, this smile grows horrible.

In humility and inexpressible sadness Adam and Eve left the lovely garden wherein they had been so happy until they disobeyed the command of God. The atmosphere was changed. It was no longer unvarying as before the transgression. God clothed them with coats of skins to protect them from the sense of chilliness and then of heat to which they were exposed.

God's Unchangeable Law

All heaven mourned on account of the disobedience and fall of Adam and Eve, which brought the wrath of God upon the whole human race. They were cut off from communing with God and were plunged in hopeless misery. The law of God could not be changed to meet man's necessity, for in God's arrangement it was never to lose its force nor give up the smallest part of its claims.

The angels of God were commissioned to visit the fallen pair and inform them that although they could no longer retain possession of their holy estate, their Eden home, because of their transgression of the law of God, yet their case was not altogether hopeless. They were then informed that the Son of God, who had conversed with them in Eden, had been moved with pity as He viewed their hopeless condition, and had volunteered to take upon Himself the punishment due to them, and die for them that man might yet live, through faith in the atonement Christ proposed to make for him. Through Christ a door of hope was opened, that man, notwithstanding his great sin, should not be under the absolute control of Satan. Faith in the merits of the Son of God would so elevate man that he could resist the devices of Satan. Probation would be granted him in which, through a life of repentance and faith in the atonement of the Son of God, he might be redeemed from his transgression of the Father's law, and thus be elevated to a position where his efforts to keep His law could be accepted.

The angels related to them the grief that was felt in heaven as it was announced that they had transgressed the law of God, which had made it expedient for Christ to make the great sacrifice of His own precious life.

When Adam and Eve realized how exalted and sacred was the law of God, the transgression of which made so costly a sacrifice necessary to save them and their posterity from utter ruin, they pleaded to die themselves, or to let them and their posterity endure the penalty of their transgression, rather than that the beloved Son of God should make this great sacrifice. The anguish of Adam was increased. He saw that his sins were of so great magnitude as to involve fearful consequences. And must it be that heaven's honored Commander, who had walked with him and talked with him while in his holy innocence, whom angels honored and worshiped, must be brought down from his exalted position to die because of his transgression?

Adam was informed that an angel's life could not pay the debt. The law of Jehovah, the foundation of His government in heaven and upon earth, was as sacred as God Himself; and for this reason the life of an angel could not be accepted of God as a sacrifice for its transgression. His law is of more importance in His sight than the holy angels around His throne. The could not abolish or change one precept of His law to meet man in his fallen condition. But the Son of God, who had in unison with the Father created man, could make an atonement for man acceptable to God, by giving His life a sacrifice and bearing the wrath of His Father. Angels informed Adam that, as his transgression had brought death and wretchedness, life and immortality would be brought to light through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ.

A View of the Future

To Adam were revealed future important events, from his expulsion from Eden to the Flood, and onward to the first advent of Christ upon the earth; His love for Adam and his posterity would lead the Son of God to condescend to take human nature, and thus elevate, through His own humiliation, all who would believe on Him. Such a sacrifice was of sufficient value to save the whole world; but only a few would avail themselves of the salvation brought to them through such a wonderful sacrifice. Many would not comply with the conditions required of them that they might be partakers of His great salvation. They would prefer sin and transgression of the law of God rather than repentance and obedience, relying by faith upon the merits of the sacrifice offered. This sacrifice was of such infinite value as to make a man who should avail himself of it more precious than fine gold.

Adam was carried down through successive generations and saw the increase of crime, of guilt and defilement, because man would yield to his naturally strong inclinations to transgress the holy law of God. He was shown that iniquity and violence would steadily increase; yet amid all the tide of human misery and woe, there would ever be a few who would preserve the knowledge of God and would remain unsullied amid the prevailing moral degeneracy. Adam was made to comprehend what sin is — the transgression of the law. He was shown that moral, mental, and physical degeneracy would result to the race, from transgression, until the world would be filled with human misery of every type.

The days of man were shortened by his own course of sin in transgressing the righteous law of God. The race was finally so greatly depreciated that they appeared inferior and almost valueless. They were generally incompetent to appreciate the mystery of Calvary, the grand and elevated facts of the atonement, and the plan of salvation, because of the indulgence of the carnal mind. Yet, notwithstanding the weakness, and enfeebled mental, moral, and physical powers of the human race, Christ, true to the purpose for which He left heaven, continues His interest in the feeble, depreciated, degenerate specimens of humanity, and invites them to hide their weakness and great deficiencies in Him. If they will come unto Him, He will supply all their needs.

CONTINUED IN THE NEXT ISSUE

NOTE: God loves us when we are good and when we are bad. He loves us if we are beautiful or if we are ugly. He loves us if we are black, white, brown, red, or yellow. In fact, He said He loves us with an “everlasting love” (Jeremiah 31:3). There’s no one else like that!

15. How did God show His great love for us? John 3:16.

NOTE: God gave His Son to a fallen race — a planet in rebellion! Christ died that we could live eternally. He suffered without protest! He could have called 10,000 angels to set Himself free, but He couldn’t save Himself and save us too! This was the ultimate gift of a loving, caring God for guilty man. And as His bruised and bleeding body hung on the cross, Jesus prayed, “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do” (Luke 23:34). That’s what God is like!

16. What did Jesus tell us to call God? Matthew 6:9.

17. What touching example of human love did God use to let us know about His everlasting love for us? Isaiah 49: 15, 16.

18. What is the ultimate goal that God has for each of us? Revelation 21:6, 7; John 1:12; II Peter 3:9.

19. When will God’s plan for mankind finally be realized? Revelation 21:1-3.

---

NOTE: In this lesson we have discovered the real Author of the book of Revelation. What a God! It is difficult for human minds to fathom such love!

With such an all-wise, all-powerful, all-loving God who sustains and controls the whole universe, we can but echo David's provocative question, "What is man that Thou art mindful of him" Yet God said, "I will not forget thee."

As we study the following lessons, we discover more about this Author of the book of Revelation and His wonderful plan for our future. Exciting lessons are just ahead. God has promised His blessing upon the reader of this book of Revelation. What encouragement we have for its study!

My Response

_____ I have discovered that the book of Revelation is not a "closed" book but that God wants us to read and understand it and will bless us in our study.

_____ I want to study and learn more about His plan for me as revealed in Revelation.

YOUR BIBLE QUESTIONS . . . ANSWERED

Does the phrase "unquenchable fire" mean that the fires of hell will never go out?

"He will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire" (Matthew 3:12b).

An unquenchable fire is a fire that cannot be put out. Once it begins its work, nothing can stop it. Likewise, when the fires of hell begin, no amount of water can extinguish the flames. The question really to be asked is, "Will it ever go out?" Yes, of course — when its work is done. When sin and sinners are consumed, the fires will quit. Isaiah 47:14 describes this work as ending in "stubble." After the fires of hell have done their work of destruction, the flames will go out.

The "fire" mentioned in Matthew 3 speaks of the punishment of the wicked. Since God is described in the Bible as a consuming fire (Deuteronomy 4:24), sin cannot exist in His presence. It is consumed and destroyed. And so at the end of time, when we all have made our final choice to either accept or reject the Lord, His glorious coming to this earth will certainly destroy and consume sinners who refuse to let go of sin.

Matthew 3:10-12 presents two classes of people — the saved and the lost. Verse 10 compares the lost as a tree that does not bear fruit and is cast into a fire and consumed. Verse 12 describes sinners as chaff that will "burn up." Like a refiner's fire, the sin in our lives will either be burned up — or it will burn us up with it if we are unwilling to release it to God. — D.B.

Liberty through Surrender

To non-believers, talk of finding freedom through complete dependence on Jesus must sound foolish. How can surrendering your desires, time, heart — indeed, your entire life — lead to anything but bondage?

The answer is evident in Jesus' own life and ministry, writes Michael Card in Immanuel: Reflections on the Life of Christ. In a twist on Julius Caesar's motto "Veni, vidi, vici" ("I came, I saw, I conquered"), "Jesus lived by the motto, 'I came, I saw, I surrendered,'" Card notes. "By living out this unorthodox pronouncement, Jesus demonstrated that what the world regards as power is really impotence. True victory is only through surrender."

AND YOU SHALL KNOW THE
AND THE TRUTH
SHALL MAKE YOU FREE!
JOHN 8:32

Oxygen for Ministry

Flight attendants instruct airplane passengers that if oxygen masks are needed, we should secure our own before assisting someone else. Why? If we aren't getting enough oxygen ourselves, we can't help another person for long.

The Holy Spirit empowers Christians for ministry — the work of loving and caring for our neighbors and God's creation. But if we aren't Spirit-fueled on an ongoing basis, we will soon lack capacity to serve. This may manifest as burnout, cynicism, exhaustion or even lack of faith. So how to ensure we're breathing in the Spirit's energy and guidance instead of poor-quality "air"?

By taking part in corporate worship regularly, immersing ourselves in the Scriptures (devotional reading and Bible study), praying "continually" (1 Thessalonians 5:17, NIV) and spending time with Christian friends and mentors. Opening ourselves to the Spirit in these ways allows the Breath of God to flow into us, which in turn empowers us to reach out to others in love.

YOUR TURN

Darkness

When did the darkness begin?
 Where did my life take its spin?
 Far and deep I have roamed
 Many bad seeds I have sown,
 My oh my oh my.
 If only I had known
 The pleasures of sin
 Were only for a season,
 The pleasures of sin I tasted
 Without any reasoning.
 Heavy and thick is this cloud
 That hovers over me,
 Boastful and proud.
 My warning to you is this:
 With sin you do not want to mix,
 It will take you deep-deep-deep,
 Till your life is very incomplete.
 Darkness refuses to leave
 No matter how much you beg and plead.
 Just stay in the light
 Where everything is bright
 Try the taste of sin and
 Soon you'll find your end.

Below is the index for the Chain Bible Marking Guide. Cut this out, and place it in your Bible. Each Number represents the first Bible reference in a Bible study topic. Go to that Bible text and mark it with the number and letters in the second column. Each month a new text guide will appear underneath the Chain Bible Marking Guide Index. After listing the first text as shown in column 2, write the reference for the second verse of the topic in the margin so that you can turn there next. Do this until all verses are marked. Now you are ready to share a Bible study on the given topic with a friend or acquaintance, with your verses listed in order.
